Hi Brian,

Hope the talk went well last night.

I was out at NoHo Plaza this morning and noticed what look like counters in the alleyway and plaza. Did you see these last night and did DOT put them in?

Thanks,
Aaron

Hi Aaron, here are a few questions that the group came up with for you. Feel free to expand/omit any of it.

- How did the BID get involved in People St and why did they apply
- What type of programming is happening in the plaza
- What are their experiences with maintaining the plaza
- Do they have any successes or lessons learned from the community partner perspective

Hi Brian,

I wanted to confirm that you'll be out at NoHo Plaza this evening for the chat with local ped/bike chapter? I have it on my calendar, but hadn't heard anything for awhile.

I had a last minute meeting come up and I'm in the Bay Area until mid afternoon today. Barring any flight delays I'll see you in NoHo later.

Thanks,
Aaron
